Cliff and Craig,

We are not available on Friday, so Thursday is better for us. Are you available at all on Thursday? Thanks.

Gail

Gail: Thank you for the spreadsheet, and I'm very sorry you did not get any time off around the 4th!

I received your email last week and forwarded it to my technical folks. However, I couldn't read the attachment until I got back to the office today. I received a voicemail from Bob Lawrence proposing a call for early this week, but at this point, I'm just hoping to talk anytime before the end of the week. In particular, I'm currently wide open this Friday if you all want to set a time then to talk.

Thanks again.

Cliff,

I attach a spreadsheet that compares the estimated costs for the work contemplated by the February 14, 2007 EE/CA submitted by the railroads and the estimated costs for the work recommended by EPA technical staff's comments on that EE/CA. We would like to schedule a call with you to discuss the spreadsheet and the path forward. We are generally available this week. None of us are taking any extra days off around the 4th. Please let us know what works for you. Thanks.
